Dear Mr. Lee:

I thoroughly appreciated your kind invitation to be with the Cookeville Jaycees on January 23 for their annual Distinguished Service Award Banquet. I remember with great pleasure and pride the number of such banquets I attended while living in Cookeville, being a member of the Cookeville Jaycees and participating in other civic activities of the community.

Will you please convey to your President and other members of your Board of Directors my regret at being unable to attend. Please also express to them my deep personal appreciation for remembering me and for inviting me to come.

Hopefully, in future years there will be other occasions when I will be able to attend.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear Mr. Chalk:

The Cookeville Jaycees wish to extend to you a personal invitation to attend our Annual Distinguished Service Award Banquet to be held at the Holiday Inn in Cookeville on January 23, 1969 at 6:30 P.M.

Each year at this time, the Jaycees honor their bosses for their cooperation with the Jaycee movement. Also at this time, an Outstanding Young Educator Award, an Outstanding Young Farmer Award and an Outstanding Boss Award along with our highest award, The Distinguished Service Award, is presented to the persons outstanding in each of these categories.

We would appreciate your advising us of your intentions in regard to this Banquet either by phone - 526-7659 - or by mail - Jesse R. Lee, 1156 Pine, Route 3, Cookeville, Tennessee. As this Banquet is by reservation only, we must know your intentions by January 16, 1969. Thank you.

We are looking forward to your attendance at this Banquet.

Sincerely,

Jesse R. Lee
